

Annexe 4
THE FUTURE OF CRISIS RESPONSE IN EUROPE
Université Paris- Dauphine
21 septembre 2017

Programme

A 711	09 :15 – 9:30	Welcome - Anouck Adrot
	9:30- 10.00	“Opportunities and shadows, and questions to be shared on future crisis response”: David Allen (University of Leeds) and Anouck Adrot (Paris-Dauphine University)
	10:00 – 10:35	Introduction to Participants and Coffee break
	10:40 – 11:25	Collaborative Session: Round 1 Short presentation: Lessons learned from crisis experience (Delphine Prieur from SAS Impact and Oizelay-et-Grachaux crisis cell)
	11:30 - 12:15	Collaborative Session: Round 2 Organisational Design Short Presentation: Agile Organisations and Crisis Response (Julien Sanchez from SNCF)
Espace One	12:15 – 13:25	Informal discussions, French buffet and coffee
	13:30 – 14:15	Collaborative Session Round 3: Decision-Making Short presentation: How to conceptualize cross-border coordination? (Miriam Klein, KIT, Anouck Adrot, Paris-Dauphine)
	14:20– 15:05	Collaborative Session Round 4: Ethical issues Short presentation: Ethical issues of crisis response (Paul-Henri Richard, UTT)
	15:05 - 15:25	Short break
	15:25 – 16:15	Synthesis and concluding remarks

Participants

Alistair Norman, University of Leeds, équipe AIM
David Allen, University of Leeds, équipe AIM
Kees Boersma, VRIJE University
Marie-Line Sauvé, Ministère de l’Intérieur
Delphine Prieur, Université Paris-Dauphine/Maire d’Oiselay-et-Grachaux/entrepreneur
Mohammed Kharraz, ENSOSP
Marc Lopez, ENSOSP
Paul-Henri Richard, UTT
Julien Sanchez, SNCF, équipe d’action rapide
Miriam Klein, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology

