

The 2nd workshop on Phenomenology will be dedicated to the theme “ Phenomenology & New Work Practices ”

Université PSL-Paris Dauphine, DRM – Management & Organisation
Friday, the 1st of June 2018

With this workshop, we seek to explore new forms of organizing regarding the link between phenomenology and Management & Organizations.

More specifically, we encourage communications that address the use of phenomenology in organization studies, management research and new work practices research.

Deadline submission: February the 10th, 2018

The 2nd workshop on Phenomenology will be held at the University of Paris-Dauphine, in Paris, France, on the 1st of June, 2018. We cordially invite researchers and PhD students to submit papers to be presented at the workshop. We also invite researchers to present their already published works as lecture. Please see below for further details concerning the workshop schedule and the submission process.

Workshop schedule

We invite submissions relating to any of the following topics combined with a phenomenological background: materiality of the workplace, new work practices, coworking, making, hacking, researchers in the city, new research methodology, temporality and/or spatiality in workplace and/or in working practices, working communities, collaborative movements, collaborative spaces, working well-being, etc.

Papers exploring new questions in MOS research, with a qualitative or a quantitative perspective, are also encouraged.

We welcome papers that adopt a theoretical or an empirical perspective on these topics. Submissions may be research-in-progress, a draft manuscript, or a paper that is ready to be submitted or published to a journal.

PhD students are invited to present advances in their doctoral research projects in order to stimulate discussion and feedback.

All papers selected for presentation will be reviewed and commented on by one of the scientific committee.

Authors will have 15 minutes to present their research, followed by 15 minutes of specific feedbacks from invited guests and for an open discussion with the audience.

Submission process

The deadline for the submission of full papers is February the 10th, 2018 via email to: aurore.dandoy@dauphine.eu
